

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The preparation of this report was an initiative of the Country Office of the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) taken in cooperation with the Council for Development and Reconstruction (CDR), its national counterpart, and implemented through the project Management Support for Operational Framework for Sustainable Human Development. Christian De Clercq, Project Manager, directed the activity and provided overall guidance and support.

The report was financed mainly by UNDP and from a contribution by the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA).

This report was written by the project coordinator, Riad Tabbarah, Director of the Center for Development Studies and Projects (MADMA), who managed the different activities, including the preparation of a number of background papers and a series of consultations with stakeholders and development partners of different public institutions and civil society organizations.

A group of experts was assigned to write the background papers on subjects relating to the thematic part of the report, Youth and Development. The background papers provided useful material for documenting the corresponding chapters of the report. They were prepared by: Samar al-Yassir, private consultant (Youth in International Resolutions); Monique Chaaya, American University of Beirut (Youth Demography and Family Formation of Youth); Assaad al-Atat, Lebanese University (Youth Manpower in Lebanon, in Arabic); Khayrieh Kaddouh, Lebanese University (Youth and Education, in Arabic); Hala Nawfal-Rizkallah, Lebanese University (Youth and Health in Lebanon, in Arabic); and Farah Berri, Ministry of Emigrants Affairs (Youth and Public Participation). Interviews with youth for the boxes entitled In Their Own Words were carried out by Lana Aude. Three research assistants: Nada Sleem, Dania Shaar and Diana al-Azar, all research staff at MADMA, were involved in collecting data, organizing information and copy editing.

A CDR/UNDP task force was entrusted with overseeing, monitoring and supporting the progress in the preparation of the report. The task force consisted of designated representatives from CDR, Amal Karake and Ramzi Naaman, and from UNDP, Randa Aboulhosn and Christian de Clercq, who as facilitator also designed the concept and developed the annotated outline of the report and undertook the substantive review and editing of the final draft. The task force was supported by Michèle Abou-Saad, who provided excellent administrative and secretarial assistance throughout the project period. The task force reviewed and commented on the different drafts. The report greatly benefited from these comments, which were largely incorporated in its final form. Nevertheless, the ideas presented in this report are not necessarily those of the CDR or the UNDP, but are the principal responsibility of the senior author.

Special thanks go to all the cooperating ministries and other public departments for the time afforded in consultations and for the data and information supplied to members of the team. Thanks go in particular to: CDR, the Ministry of Social Affairs and the team working on the analysis of the results of the Population and Housing Survey, the Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports, the Ministry of Higher Education, the Ministry of Health, the Ministry of Environment, the Ministry of Displaced Persons, the Ministry of Emigrant Affairs, the Ministry of Finance, the Ministry of Justice, and the Central Bank of Lebanon.

Special thanks also go to the many civil society organizations that offered information and contributed ideas that emanate from their wide experience in the field. Thanks go to the UN System organizations in Beirut, in particular FAO, ILO, UNESCO, UNESCWA, UNFPA, UNIC, UNICEF, WHO, and, of course, UNDP, for information and comments provided to members of the team and for opening their libraries to them. The specific contribution of WHO to the chapter Youth and Health is recognized. Consultations with civil society organizations and international organizations were held individually and through meetings organized by UNDP.

Thanks also go to Soha Bsati Boustani for supervising the production of the report and to Sara-Jane Arida for the graphic design layout of the report and to Roger Moukarzel for the photos of the report.
